

A 30s-40s RETROSPECTIVE

Pianist/ singer Alan Pearlmutter teams up with clarinetist Linda Poland to perform some of the great standards of the depression and war period. The songs of Harold Arlen, Cole Porter, George Gershwin, Irving Berlin, Rogers and Hammerstein, and Kurt Weill brought America together during some of the hardest times of the twentieth century. Songs include September Song, Summertime, And the Angels Sing, Begin the Beguine, If I Loved You, You'll Never Walk Alone, My Funny Valentine.

A '30S – '40S RETROSPECTIVE

Featuring

Linda Poland, clarinet, arranger
Alan Pearlmutter, keyboard, vocals, arranger

- | | |
|--|--|
| Besame Mucho, 1941 | Consuelo Velazquez |
| * Over the Rainbow, The Wizard of Oz , 1938 | Harold Arlen |
| * Summertime, Porgy and Bess , 1935 | George and Ira Gershwin, DuBose Heyward |
| * September Song, 1938 | Kurt Weill, Maxwell Anderson |
| * Night and Day, 1932 | Cole Porter |
| * My Funny Valentine, Babes in Arms , 1937 | Rodgers and Hart |
| * Mairzy Doats, 1943 | Milton Drake, Al Hoffman, Jerry Livingston |
| * Tenderly, 1946 | Walter Gross |
| And the Angels Sing, 1939 | Ziggy Elman, Johnny Mercer |
| Begin the Beguine, 1935 | Cole Porter |
| * Let's Take an Old-Fashioned Walk, Miss Liberty , 1948 | Irving Berlin |
| If I Loved You, Carousel , 1945 | Rodgers and Hammerstein |
| * You'll Never Walk Alone, Carousel , 1945 | Rodgers and Hammerstein |
| Mission to Moscow, 1942 | Mel Powell / Benny Goodman |
| * Songs available with word sheets for a sing-along | |